

I purchased XM radio because I did not enjoy the programming on the majority of the stations in Dallas and do not like the power and politics of Clear Channel who are a dominant force in radio. I do not want to see limits put on XM as far as public domain information and would appreciate your giving them equal rights to the other radio stations. In America competition has always spawned innovation and improved service.
Thanks for your consideration.

Larry Leon